Welcome to the April issue of FBIM Transactions, an international academic journal in the field of social sciences (economics, and law) jointly published by MESTE, Faculty of Business and Law of the "MB" University in Belgrade, and SZ & Associates, Toronto, Canada. FBIM Transactions is published online as well as in print (primarily for libraries and subscribers).

This issue of the journal is published at the time of the coronavirus pandemic. The whole range of activities is still suspended, which drastically affects people individually and the world economy. The borders of many countries are still closed, people are advised to distance themselves and stay in their homes, so the importance of the Internet and communication via the Internet is becoming increasingly visible. For now, it works perfectly and allows people to stay connected and informed. Thanks to the Internet, work from home, our authors, and reviewers, we can offer our readers a new issue of FBIM Transactions with thirteen new papers. We are sure that you will find some of the offered works that will attract your attention.

We wish you good health and invite you to publish your new papers. Our journal is currently particularly interested in papers that may reflect your view of the economic and social changes caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. Of course, works from other areas are also welcomed. If you get inspiration to write a paper, we will help you publish it.
